Date: 07.02.2023

Notice (For all students of EIEM & EPITI)

The students are directed to be in proper college uniform with Identity card and formal shoes.

In the previous notice it is already intimated to collect the college uniform from our college campus on some specified date. But a good number of students have not collected their uniforms on that date.

It is further informed that the uniform will be distributed again on 8th February (Wednesday), 2023 after which students must report to the respective department
